My own Precious Mother -

I wish I had received a letter from you today I get pretty lonesome without my Mother -

We arrived here Wed. noon it's surprising what one year's difference makes in a place this size.

Mother & father & Ennell were most delighted to see us their new place is just as nice as it could be very artistic -

This week there is a "chantauqua" here & it's really remarkable the people they

They - have in it

One company is here to stay & goes on to Cocharane tomorrow thus they have four places going at one time - Miss Constance Bolton gave an address yesterday & a mighty fine one - Today they had a string quartet of musicians from the Boston Symphony Orchestra that was really very very good.

Claude & Luella have a brand new Bakewell quilt the loveliest bakewell I have ever seen just a little doll.

We had a very nice time at Lady Eaton's she is as you said Ha Ha -

Now I should have

Kawandag,
Rosseau,
Muskoka.

Wished to have seen Uncle Alec give him my best love if you see him again - Thank you dear for going over to see our dear home wasn't it awful about the Ryersons.
When are you going to Inconing we leave here a week from Sunday night.

Give my best love to Dad cheaps for you Pauling love from Baky -

My Dearest Mother, —

Here I am all dressed up waiting for supper.
We have had a glorious restful day it has simply tamed rain & is very cold so we have stayed in by the fire they even have a fire in the furnace.

Golly, Billy, & Eaton were over early in the afternoon & then it cleared a little so we all went walking for an hour.

Backy Eaton called for us yesterday night after lunch we went away down ready

Kawandag
Rosseau
Muskoka.

& Grauenhurst to call on a Miss Mayhew-

Paul Wells is in the Parker Cottage boating with "Bob" & Mr. Duintelé the harpist is in Rosseau they were aboard yesterday with the harp & the Misses Plank the Ruliton we had a fine concert on board.

Sir John isn't here this two weeks -

We had a & wonderfully restful happy week at the "Porter" they do know how to live every minute they really enjoy living every second—

Maddy Eaton loves you & Dad speaks of you often very lovingly.

It will only be two weeks till we see you Southeast Bob has learned such a lot about building since coming to Muskoka—

Well Darling Pet I must run along—

Heaps & heaps of love & kisses from Bob & I
Dearest Dad—

Loveingly

Dorothy.

What about the house on Death St.

Englehart Cal.
July 25/20

Dear Sir: -

Elvethy is sitting worrying about you at one end of the table and Jim worrying about her worrying about you at the other. As a matter of fact I think you are hale and hearty and enjoying your holiday at Ansona or else carrying stones for the new house. Before doing much with the building there should be no uncertainty as to who is the 'lead contractor' - with your inspiration and the Colonel's reasoning there should be very fine team work. I am asked to advise that the unskilled labor will arrive on Monday August 2nd. The market is very unsatisfactory but we do hope the two hands which we are sending you will do as a makeshift.
Our holiday so far has been varied but pleasant. You know, the sort of pleasure you enjoy at long intervals. Next year, if we get any holidays, we intend them to be very different.

Lorothy is the idol of the home here and deserves to be. Everyone loves her and I love them to so long as the male lovers are over sixty and under fifteen years of age. She's undecided whether she is to enjoy a buggy ride through the country tonight. Last year dad took us for a similar drive - it was almost too interesting for town folks. He is a very careful driver however and there is no need to worry.

Give the Colonel my very kindest regards and say that I am in good condition, both mentally and physically, for mammal baby.

Sincerely
Bob

Englehart -

Mother Darling - I haven't had a letter from you for a whole week and I am terribly worried. We are wondering if you are at Ancona - perhaps you have forgotten the name of this town. I had neuralgia last week I guess I caught cold in the water at Muskoka as it was quite cold but I feel fine again.

This morning Victor Mollins took us all around the country in his car. This is really wonderful farming country & is being cleared very quickly.

The way the people here enjoyed the Chautauqua was almost pitiful they were so eager to hear every word it really was well worth while every bit of it

Tomorrow Mother Linnell is giving a tea for one of 30 ladies & she wants it to be just like one you would give — ~~she~~ you know is quite the lady of the land up here —

The Bakery is really lovely & as good as gold & she is getting on very very well —

We will be there for your Birthday Darling Sweetest

With love to you & Dad from

we are both disgustingly fat.
